

DISLOCATED WORKER TRAINING NATIONAL EMERGENCY GRANT AWARDEES

The California Workforce Investment Board is pleased to announce that the following organizations have been awarded a sub-grant under the Dislocated Worker Training National Emergency Grant that was awarded to California.

ORGANIZATION
Jewish Vocational Services
North Central Counties Consortium
Pacific Gateway Workforce Investment Network
Sacramento Employment and Training Agency
San Bernardino County Workforce Investment Board
Southeast Los Angeles County Workforce Investment Board

The grants will fund projects that fill critical health care workforce skill gaps by creating opportunities for California job seekers to earn industry-valued credentials and/or developing on-the-job training, internship, and other work-based learning modalities that expedite job placement in entry-level and middle skilled health care occupations. The projects target dislocated workers, long-term unemployed and veterans and will operate through March 31, 2015.
